

BOTHO
UNIVERSITY

EXCELLENCE | LEADERSHIP | INNOVATION

PRESENTATION

Objectives

- Maslow's Hierarchy
- Abraham Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs is a 1943 psychological theory that describes a hierarchy of human needs that must be met for people to realise their full potential and achieve self-actualization. The hierarchy is frequently pictured as a pyramid, with five different levels of needs, arranged in terms of importance.

continuation points

- Self-actualization
- Esteem
- Belongingness
- Safety
- Physiological

BOTHO
UNIVERSITY

EXCELLENCE | LEADERSHIP | INNOVATION

THANK YOU!